-Jonathan Kiger es extremely intelligent, reliable, resourceful, and typically goes the extra mile in meeting the needs of clients. He has done a very professionally extensive job in selling our house in Kona, the Big Island, and in the process solved a number of little problems (arranging for repairs, etc.) in the process. Additionally, beyond his dedication it is easy to see his empathy for others, including animals. Jonathan Kiger is an outstanding young man.

-Jonathan was very helpful in our condo search on the Big Island. He showed us many properties with absolutely no pressure to buy. We finally found our perfect condo and Jonathan was very helpful with the financing, which was a bit stressful. He was always positive and helped me to see the light at the end of the tunnel. I highly recommend Jonathan!

-I thought Jonathan was a great to work with. He was able to get us smoothly to the end of our short sale purchase. He kept us informed as things slowly moved along with the bank. He was also realistic about the pitfalls that short sales can have. I would definitely use Jonathan and Hawaii 50 Realty again.

-Jonathan Kiger at 5 0 Realty in Kailua Kona is the best! He went out of his way to help me find the right place, followed through on anything that needed to be done to make the sale happen. He is very good with computers, (I'm not!), listens to your needs, and actually helped me to buy my home in Kona while I was living in California. He is honest, friendly and very helpful. I highly recommend him and all of the Hawaii 5 0 staff! Thank you, Jonathan!

-Friendly, smart, and very helpful! My wife and I have our own home in Hawaii thanks to Jonathan. He was very attentive to our needs and helped us even get the contractor to upgrade our appliances to stainless steel, which looks really nice. He was readily available and worked hard to get us our home. Even when our loan was taking longer than expected he never gave up. We're thrilled!

-I spent 2 days with Jonathan reviewing properties and was impressed with his knowledge of the local area and expertise in proceeding with the offer and counter offer process. Jonathan showed me all the properties I wanted to see and some that I was unaware were on the market. He meet all my expectations in the property search process and guided me professionally with the initial offer. The end result was a decision to buy a home at what turned out to be a very good price, much below the listing price.

-I'm very impressed with Jonathan Kiger as a real estate professional and also a person. His attitude is very upbeat and friendly, and very easy to get along with. He's quite the impressive man with an astounding amount of connections on the island, and will do whatever it takes to get you what you're looking for. Responses were prompt and always helpful and most importantly I truly felt that he never pushed a sale and genuinely wanted to get me the place of my dreams in paradise. HUGE SUCCESS!

Comes highly recommended from my mainland friends and I can't agree more, hands down the most connected and personable agent I've ever worked with.

-Jonathan helped me buy my first condo in Kona. I believe that he represented me (as a buyer) as well as can be expected of anyone. He listens, he is responsive and he gets the job done. I will be working with him again. Three and a half years later Jonathan has again helped me buy a condo in Kona (my second) and he has again exceeded my expectations with his expertise in the realty field and local knowledge. He fully lives up to his fiduciary responsibilities and has my back without question. I am happy and proud to associate myself with Jonathan and Donna at Hawaii 50 Realty. They are a quality team. I recommend them wholeheartedly.

-Jonathan has been so very helpful helping us find a vacation home in Kona. He is a wealth of knowledge and so easy to work with. He responded to our questions promptly even if he had to research a bit to get the answer. Jonathan Kiger seemed as excited as we were to find the perfect property and took a real interest in our search. He worked within our budget and gave us just enough options to choose from in our limited time on the island. Jonathan is very well connected in Kona and knows who to talk too and how to make the best use of full day of house hunting! We would recommend Jonathan to anyone who is looking for property in Kona.
